ADDENDUM

Most of the above publications are still available through their respective publisher. It is strongly recommended that the publisher in question be contacted first since if he has the back issues available that you want, he can provide you with an original that is both clearer and cheaper than a copy from Hoosier Archives which is mainly a service to provide copies of unavailable back issues.

For an excellent list of current Diplomacy publications with name and addresses of the editor in question write John McCallum, P.O. Box 52, Ralston, Alberta, Canada and ask him for a copy of SerenDip #58. He should be able to provide you with a copy for about 15¢.

The most complete review of the entire literature of postal Diplomacy ever written and current to May 1969 was published by Rod Walker, 5058 Hawley Blvd, San Diego, California 92116. This "Bibliologia" was published in Erehwon, III, 9-10 and the price of these two 'zines should be 70¢ by first class mail if they are still available through their editor.

WANTED

Hoosier Archives will pay a reasonable price for any postal Diplomacy publication not on the above list as it is desired to build as extensive a collection as possible. Also if you have a rare back issue Diplomacy 'zine but are unwilling to sell it, I would very much like to borrow it for xerox purposes and am willing to pay a fee. Besides providing the above service I plan to compile complete game records with whatever analysis and annotation is available and also reprint old articles on strategy and tactics plus other articles of interest to postal Dippy fans in general. It is felt that Dippydom has a real need for this so your co-operation is appreciated.
